FEBRUARY MEETING NOTICE

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 2019

MEMBERSHIP PROMOTION NIGHT

Please come join us for another great ASHRAE Orange Empire meeting this February 26th! It's later in the month, so procrastinators are going to be pleased.

TECHNICAL SESSION EXPANSION TANK SIZING AND AIR ELIMINATION/CONTAINMENT

Our speaker, Eric Decker, P.E, CPD, will discuss hydronic expansion in closed-loop systems and how to accommodate it with expansion tanks. Various types of expansion tanks will be reviewed as well as how to properly size them. Air Elimination and Air Containment methods will also be discussed and how the type of expansion tank affects this choice.)

Eric Decker graduated from the University of Illinois at Chicago with a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering. After graduating, he worked for Bell & Gossett in Morton Grove, IL in the Commercial Pumps Marketing Department. In Fall of 2011, Eric joined Dawson Company's Business Development Group calling on mechanical and plumbing consulting engineers. In Fall of 2017, Eric became manager of the department. Eric is a Registered Professional Mechanical Engineer (P.E.) in California as well as Certified in Plumbing Design (CPD). He is also past President of the ASHRAE Orange Empire Chapter.

DINNER PROGRAM HYDRONIC PIPING WITH PEX: PROS AND PITFALLS

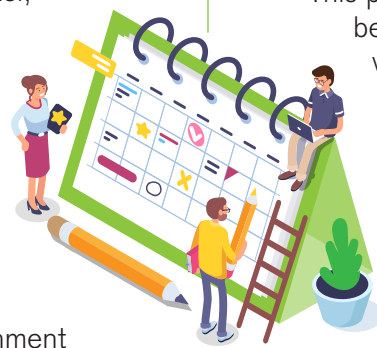

This presentation explores the benefits and pitfalls associated with using PEX for hydronic piping systems. The evolution of piping materials is not much different from that of many other industrial technology trajectories such as music media. The industry adoption of new materials is always challenged by a series of criteria such as reliability, performance, cost, and scheduling.

The expansion of PEX into the world of hydronic systems has numerous benefits but isn't without its pitfalls that await the under informed.

What specification language should be used? How should engineers deal with hydronic piping risers, design proper supports, and control expansion? Explore these topics as well as dive into some case studies.

Devin Abellon, business development manager for Uponor Engineering Services who is a Distinguished Lecturer for ASHRAE.

Mr. Abellon holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical (See DINNER PROGRAM page 3)

GREG'S BLOG

Hello Orange Empire! I hope everyone has stayed safe in all this rain we've been getting the last few weeks. Winter is upon us and the local mountains and Sierras are full of snow with Mammoth having the most in the country! The rain is much needed and has definitely made the drive in to the office and from project to project more scenic.

My apologies for last month's technical tour cancellation at the Honda Center. Apparently some performer came in and booked the facility last minute for practice for an upcoming show, artist still TBD. I know I was pretty bummed so hopefully they got all the practice they needed.

We're considering possibly setting up again towards the end of this season in April. Thank you to all who made the trek out in the pouring rain. We had a really good turnout even though the weather didn't cooperate.

We're hoping to continue our success at the Phoenix Club this month by offering a tech session on Expansion Tank Sizing and hosting a DL (Distinguished Lecturer). We will have one of our own, Eric Decker, P.E., C.P.D. with Dawson Company, hosting the tech session. Eric is one of our Past Presidents and current Orange Empire Board of Governors member.

For the dinner presentation we will have Devon Abellon, P.E. with Uponor present on crosslinked polyethylene (PEX) piping and how it can be a cost-effective and flexible alternative to conventional metallic piping systems on large-scale commercial projects. Devon is an active member of ASHRAE on the local chapter, regional, and Society level. He is also currently the Programs Subcommittee Chair for ASHRAE TC6.5 – Radiant and Convective Space Heating and Cooling, and is a Regional Vice Chair in Region X.

Lastly, next month's meeting will be a joint meeting with the San Diego Chapter on March 19th at El Adobe Restaurant in San Juan Capistrano. The dinner topic will be presented by a DL again, Peter Simmonds, PhD, ASHRAE Fellow and will focus on Designing Buildings and Systems for Occupant Comfort. Peter's presentation is GBCI Approved for 1 CE Hour & AIA Approved for 1 LU, so take advantage. Until next month, stay comfortable....
