Complete Requirements 1 & 2 - plus at least two others:

1. Do the following:
 - a. Play to initiative or team-building games with the members of your den.
 - b. Listen carefully to your leader while the rules are being explained, and follow the directions while playing.
 - c. At the end of the game, talk with your leader about what you learned when you were playing the game. Tell how you helped the den by doing your part.
2. Talk with your den or family about why good nutrition helps you to be strong and active. Bring a nutritious snack to a den meeting. Share why you picked it and what makes it a good snack choice.
3. Make up a game with the members of your den and play it with den members. After playing the game talk with your den about the experience.
4. Make up a new game and play it with your family or members of your den or pack. Then talk with the group about the experience.
5. Do the following:
 - a. Attend a sporting event with your den or family
 - b. Before or after the event talk with a coach or athlete about what it is like to participate in the sport OR find out more about the sport and share what you have learned with your den or family members before or after the event.

Resources and Ideas:

1. Team Games include Steal the Bacon, Capture the Flag, or Hot Seat. Paper Plate Shuffle is a great one as well:

2. You can get healthy eating ideas here: <https://www.choosemyplate.gov/>
- 3&4. These activities are great chances for Cubs to show their creativity. Use cards, dice, coins or any other props they like to make a game. Let them test out the rules they choose and see what can be changed to make the game harder or more fun. Play a few rounds!
5. Attending a youth sporting event counts! Following the Cub Scout Motto of "Do Your Best" is key - Watch a game on TV and find some videos of well known athletes and coaches sharing their insights on the game on the internet if an in person event isn't possible.
