

Phillip Wetmore

From: Comagine Health <Communications@comagine.org>
Sent: Monday, November 6, 2023 9:15 AM
To: Phillip Wetmore
Subject: Idaho Perinatal Quality Collaborative News: November 2023

Follow Up Flag: Follow up
Flag Status: Flagged

Idaho Perinatal Quality Collaborative News

The Maternal and Child Health Program of the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare and Comagine Health have partnered to establish Idaho's Perinatal Quality Collaborative (IDPQC). The Idaho PQC brings together clinical providers, public health leaders, payers and community-based organizations to improve outcomes for pregnant people and babies.

Visit the IDPQC Activities Overview to learn more.

November 2023

Thank you for Joining Us at the IDPQC Kickoff

We hope you found the Oct. 16 meeting informative and engaging. For those who missed it, the recording and associated materials can be found here.

Interested in Participating in a Leadership Role?

We are accepting nominations for IDPQC Governing Board & Steering Committee positions! Please review the position descriptions and nominate individuals who you believe may have the interest, experience and capacity to volunteer for these roles. You may self-nominate.

Enrollment Closing Soon for Hypertension Cohort

This is your last chance to participate in the first cohort of the IDPQC's Patient Safety Bundle on Severe Hypertension in Pregnancy. Enrollment officially closes Nov. 30. If your hospital is interested, please email Phillip Wetmore or Genevieve Rasmussen.

Powerful Stories from Women in Idaho on 'This American Life'

Miki Meek reports on the situation for pregnant women in Idaho under the state's new post-Roe abortion laws, which are some of the most restrictive in the country. OB-GYNs say the state is in a crisis. Meek also talks to Idaho legislators who voted for the laws, some of whom now think there should be some changes to the laws.

Maternal Mental Health Hotline, Postpartum Depression Toolkit Available

The Maternal and Child Health Program at the Idaho Department of Health & Welfare is working to increase awareness of the National Maternal Mental Health Hotline among medical providers. The hotline provides 24/7, free, confidential support, resources and referrals to any pregnant and postpartum mothers facing mental health challenges and their loved ones. The service is available via phone and text in over 65 languages. Expect to see ads on LinkedIn from January through June.

You can help promote the hotline by ordering free Maternal Mental Health Hotline magnets (English and Spanish) and notebooks to distribute to maternal health providers and new and expecting mothers. Please contact idahomch@dhw.idaho.gov to place your order. Limited quantities available.

Additionally, OASH Office on Women's Health has a new postpartum depression campaign toolkit available. If you'd like to learn how to implement the campaign in your community, watch this OASH video.

Is she overjoyed
and overwhelmed?
Encourage her to call
1-833-TLC-MAMA.

 Idaho
maternal & child health

Promotion of the hotline is recommended by the Idaho
Maternal Mortality Review Committee

Excited to learn more about the Idaho Perinatal Quality Collaborative (IDPQC) and get involved? Complete the IDPQC Interest Form to sign up for future newsletter, project updates, and express interest in leadership roles.

This project was supported by CFDA 93.994 from the Health Resources and Services Administration. Its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of the Idaho Department of Health and Welfare or the Health Resources and Services Administration.

Comagine Health

10700 Meridian Ave N, Suite 300, Seattle, WA 98133

This email was sent to pwetmore@comagine.org

Want to change how you receive this email?

Update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list

Comagine Health emails are powered by Cerkl®