

2025 High Adventure Opportunities

- To see a list of openings on the NCAC High Adventure contingents and on crews obtained by individual units, click here. Send an email here if your crew has an opening and wants to be added to the list by providing the information on the list.

•

Program Summaries

For many years Dave Green, an avid backpacker and high pointer, as well as the Chain Bridge High Adventure District Representative, has produced a set of program summaries describing high adventure bases that is widely distributed in the National Capital Area Council. His latest program summaries are available here.

Resources

- Information about BSA and Council High Adventure Bases and Camps in Volume 1 of the High Adventure Sourcebook, click here.
 - Information about Treks, Hikes and Overnights in the Mid-Atlantic region in Volume 2 of the High Adventure Sourcebook, click here.
 - Favorite Hikes of High Adventure Committee members in Maryland and Virginia, click here.
 - Outdoor Guide to the Northern Shenandoah Valley, a 1997 Eagle Project of Robert Drake, Troop 21 in Shenandoah Area Council, click here.
 - For a list of all BSA council-run high adventure bases, click here.
-

Recent News

For breaking news about High Adventure opportunities in the National Capital Area Council, click here.

HAC Meetings

The NCAC High Adventure Committee is currently using Microsoft Teams to meet at 7:00 pm on the first Thursday of September through May. Contact Mark Wray via email or phone 703-395-6061 if you would like to attend.

Back to the HAC page

Click here to return to the High Adventure page which has links to descriptions of all four BSA National HA bases, NCAC's Lenhok'sin HA Base and other councils' HA bases in the Adirondacks.