

INTERNSHIP PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

Office of Research Commercialization Internship Program for Postdoctoral Trainees

Graduate Students (preference will be given to senior PhD students)

The mission of the Office of Research Commercialization (ORC) is to serve Rutgers and its faculty and staff by providing effective means of protecting the valuable Intellectual Property of the University and developing that property commercially by forming appropriate relationships between the University, its faculty/inventors, and the private sector.

Description: Rutgers postdoctoral trainees and graduate students interested in pursuing alternative careers in Intellectual Property Law, Business Development, and/or Academic Technology Transfer are invited to apply to the internship program. Rutgers students pursuing Master's degree in business who are interested in gaining hands-on experiences in marketing and business development are also encouraged to apply to the internship program.

What is required:

- Minimum of 2 semesters commitment to the program
- Ability to dedicate 5-10 hours/week -- 2-3 hours to be spent in our office (33 Knightsbridge Road, Piscataway), and 3-7 hours to be spent carrying out research remotely
- Approval of your PI or Advisor (signature required below)

Elements of the Program: The program will begin Friday, October 4, 2019 at 3pm. It will begin with several lecture-style sessions on Intellectual Property Law, Contracts/Agreements relevant for academic Tech Transfer, Technical Writing, Marketing and Licensing. After each session, assignments will be given. Participants will be expected to reach a certain level of expertise to carry out basic invention evaluation and marketing independently with minor supervision.

What you will learn: You will be exposed to the exciting world of Intellectual Property; you will learn the necessary steps that are needed in order to effectively protect and commercialize the results of scientific research. You will learn how to evaluate an Invention Disclosure, prepare Non-Confidential Summaries, and identify and reach out to prospective licensees. You will learn about negotiation of the business terms of various agreements that govern Technology Transfer in an academic university.

In order to be considered for the program, please fill out the information below and send to the ORC along with your CV and a brief statement on the nature of your interest by e-mail to yong.zhang@rutgers.edu by Monday, September 23, 2019. Applications will be reviewed and interviews may be conducted as needed.
