“Well, my brothers and sisters, let’s summarize. When you meet together, one will sing, another will teach, another will tell some special revelation God has given, one will speak in tongues, and another will interpret what is said. But everything that is done must strengthen all of you.”

1 Corinthians 14.26 (NLT)

“So here’s what I want you to do. When you gather for worship, each one of you be prepared with something that will be useful for all: Sing a hymn, teach a lesson, tell a story, lead a prayer, provide an insight.”

1 Corinthians 14.26 (The Message)

“One day the group of prophets came to Elisha and told him, “As you can see, this place where we meet with you is too small.

Let’s go down to the Jordan River, where there are plenty of logs. There we can build a new place for us to meet.” “All right,” he told them, “go ahead.””

2 Kings 6:1–2 (NLT)

“I am going to bring a team to you that you will lead with excellence and will bring transformation to many lives.
... I am going to connect you with people who will help you build this base.”
