Complete Requirements 1 and 2 plus at least one other.

1. With your den or pack, participate in a flag ceremony, and learn how to properly care for and fold the flag.
2. Participate in a community service project with your pack, den, or family.
3. With your parent or guardian's permission, talk to a military veteran, law enforcement officer, member of the fire department, or someone else approved by your Den Leader. Talk about his or her service to the community or country. After you have visited with the individual, write a short thank-you note.
4. Learn about the changes in your community, and create a project to show your den how the community has changed.
5. Select one issue in your community, and present to your den your ideas for a solution to the problem.
6. Work with your den to develop a den duty chart, and perform these tasks for one month.
7. Participate in an event such as a parade or assembly celebrating military veterans.

Resources and Ideas:

1. Respect for the Flag is a key point for this activity - You can conduct a virtual flag ceremony, or meet in person to do one. Reach out to a local Troop to see about a joint ceremony, or potentially doing a Flag Retirement as well.
2. Service projects can be local - Clean up trash in a local park, or find a local organization that needs help organizing a food pantry.
3. We live in an area rich with public safety professionals, military members and veterans. A Pack family member might even work! Many firehouses are not allowing tours right now, but might be willing to video a message or conduct a Facetime meeting.
4. Communities change over time - A phone call to your local government representatives can help find some of the history of your area.
5. Your local government representatives may also be able to help identify issues facing your community to discuss and teach your Den about.
6. Here is an example den duty chart - May take some additional work to get these to work during COVID, but Do Your Best:

7. Depending on the timing of your Adventure - You could volunteer to help with Wreaths Across America to help Remember, Honor, Teach at a local Veteran Cemetery during the holiday season.
