Complete the following requirements.

1. Discuss with your parent, guardian, den leader, or other caring adult what it means to do your duty to God. Tell how you do your duty to God in your daily life.
2. Complete at least one of the following:
 - a. Identify a person whose faith you admire, and discuss this person with your family.
 - b. With a family member, provide service to a place of worship or a spiritual community, school, or community organization that puts into practice your ideals of duty to God and strengthens your fellowship with others.
3. Complete at least one of the following:
 - a. Earn the religious emblem of your faith that is appropriate for your age, if you have not already done so.
 - b. Make a list of things you can do to practice your duty to God as you are taught in your home or place of worship or spiritual community. Select two of the items and practice them for two weeks.

Resources and Ideas:

1. Family discussions about religion and daily faith-life happen in many families - Use those regular opportunities to fulfill this requirement.
2.
 - a. Your Scout can pick a family member or faith community leader, a famous figure, or someone local. You can talk about why that person is admired, and what your Scout can do to live life and grow in faith like the person they selected.
 - b. Many faith communities have service projects, great and small, that can fulfill this requirement. Check with your faith leadership, or community outreach committee and see what help they might need.
3.
 - a. Religious Emblems Program information can be found here:
