Change the game

Boring meetings need not be a fact of life

Become a game changer

Leadership isn't about getting people to do their job. It's about getting people to

DO THEIR BEST.

~ Harvey McKay CPAE

“Once you get people laughing, they’re listening and you can tell them almost ANYTHING!”

—Herbert Gardner

LAUGH in the

will forget what you said,
and people will forget
what you did, but people made them feel.”

WORDS HAVE POWER!

According to research conducted at Cambridge University, it doesn't matter in what order the letters in a word are; the only important thing is that the first and last letter be at the right place. The rest can be a total mess and you can still read it without much problem. This is because the human mind does not read every letter by itself, but the word as a whole.

LEARN TO

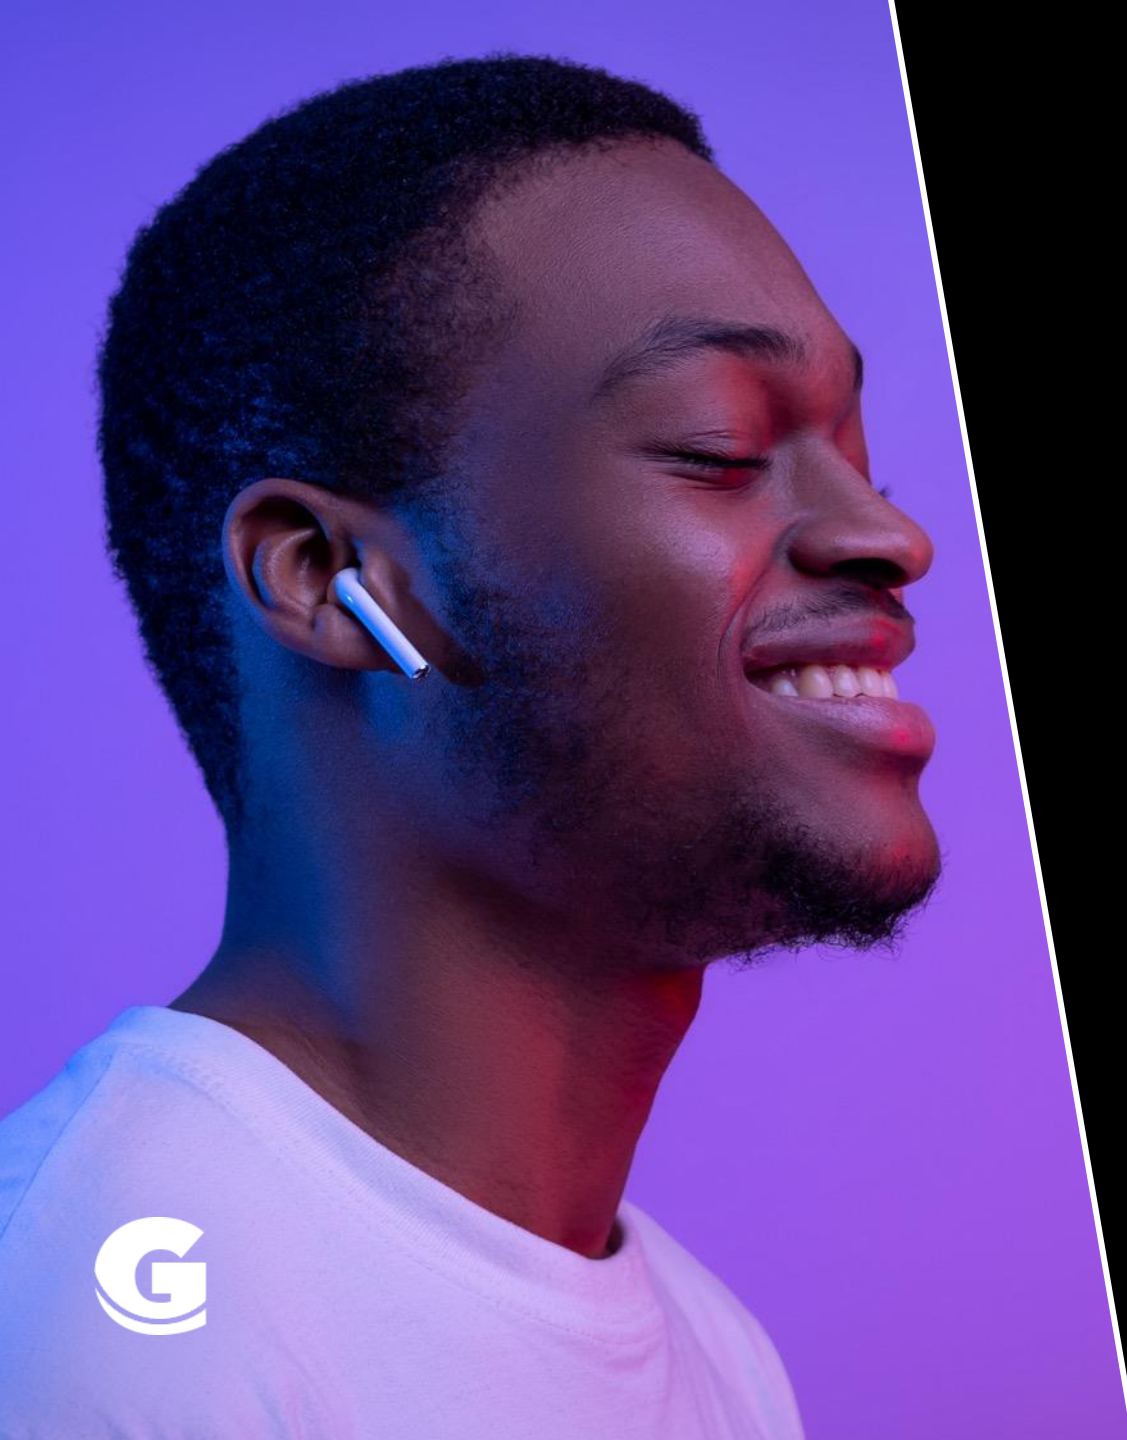

LISTEN

A group of people are seated in a safari vehicle, looking out at a lush green forest. The scene is captured from a low angle, showing the upper bodies of the passengers. A woman in a colorful striped shirt and a man in a light blue polo shirt are prominent. The text "How will I know when I've had a great safari?" is overlaid in a white box with a black border. A large white letter 'G' logo is in the bottom right corner.

How will I know when I've had a great safari?

Listening is learned

Average speech rate 200
words a minute

Most of us think at four times that speed

Meaning? The mind can and does wander

PASSIVE LISTENING

Mind is only partially engaged in listening process.

ACTIVE LISTENING

Mind is fully engaged. You concentrate on what is being said and provide “in the now” feedback. You’re conveying a language of acceptance in which you reinforce the importance of others’ words with consistent feedback.
